Owner

A statistical office or other authority responsible for defining, specifying, creating and making decisions about the maintenance of an information object and/or its metadata. Some information objects may have several Owners.

* Attributes inherited from super-type(s) are not included here