Organisation and Agent

This might be a duplicate to another issue. The following part of the explanatory text for Agent "An Organization may be an entire organization or entities within a larger organization, such as departments or divisions. An Organization may have sub Agents, which may be either other Organizations within the parent Organization or Individuals that belong to that Organization" ought to be moved into the explanatory text for Organisation.