

Skills

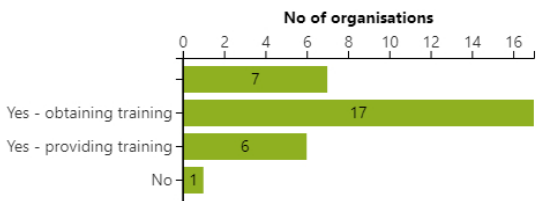

Does your organisation have the required skilled resources, or access to resources, to undertake data integration activities?

Has your organisation developed or sourced specific training or other forms of skills development for data integration activities in the last 3 to 5 years?

Would you be interested in obtaining or providing data integration training with other official statistics organisations?

Please indicate the areas where you think training is most required

Please provide any relevant information and/or links